

Police Kill Motorcyclist in Lagos

joined his ancestors on July 6.

Hell was let loose yesterday afternoon, when three policemen shot and killed a passenger on motorbike in Lagos in error. The passenger's identity is not yet known as at press time.

According to a witness account, the motorcyclist was taken some policemen from Police Station. Lagos went on

By Kemi Adenuga

surveillance to a place on Lagunasho Street, Bariga.

Some residents of the area, mostly youth, pressed when the policemen tried to move towards a known criminals' hide-out, throwing stones and other dangerous weapons.

When it was obvious that the lives of the policemen were in danger, they shot into the air to disperse the already boisterous crowd and in the process, the man was hit. He died instantly.

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Mr. Bode Ojajumi, while contacted on phone, said he was still trying to get the situation report on the incidence.