

Ritualists

Oju Local Government Area of Benue State has imposed a dusk-to-dawn curfew, to combat ritual killings. Council's Principal Information Officer, Mr Egbodo Agana, said suspected ritual killers on August 15, at Owu ward, severed the head of a teenage girl and left three others with machete cuts. The Divisional Police Officer, Mr Onen Emmanuel, described the development as "strange and shocking."