

Akala

Many lives were yesterday saved by the convoy of Oyo State Governor, Christopher Adebayo Alao-Akala, with his efforts to rescue accident victims along Lagos-Ibadan expressway. The accident, which occurred at Remo, Ogun State, involved a 14-seater bus, which somersaulted several times when one of the front tyres came off on high speed. The victims were rescued by Alao-Akala's aides, led by his Physician, Dr Olayinka Adesola, Deputy Chief of Staff, Alhaji Gbadegehin Rasak and Special Assistant to the Governor on Protocol, Mrs Wande Eyinoye.
