

Robbers

Barely one week after Delta State Governor, Dr Emmanuel Uduaghan set up a joint security taskforce comprising the police, military and the State Security Service (SSS), armed bandits went on rampage yesterday in Asaba, the Delta State capital, opened fire on three police men despatching the trio to their early grave. The gunmen also carted away their arms and ammunitions. The incident was said to have occurred between 10 and 11 am along the Ogbeawo Street area of the capital city.