

Justice

The family of Adannaya Njoku-Chita, the 18-year-old girl killed by stray bullet from a mobile policeman's gun last month in Epe, Lagos, has called for justice. Njoku-Chita died on August 31, shortly after she was hit at Shade junction, opposite the First Bank Plc, in Aiyetoro-Epe, during a violent crisis involving the policeman who was on guard at the bank and two other persons.
