One Killed in PDP Primaries

A member of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) in Akwa Ibom State, was reportedly crushed to death, during a crisis over the conduct of the party's ward congresses.

The primary, which begun on Monday, continued yesterday, and was witnessed by Speaker of the state House of Assembly, Honourable Ignatius Edet, a member of the House of Representatives, Honourable Ita Enang jointly trading words with the State Commssioner for Finance, Mr Bassey Albert Akpan, alleging the Speaker of hijacking materials meant for wards in Ibiono Ibom Local Government.

Sources told THISDAY that the Speaker, also known as Alawo, and Enang, representing Ibiono Ibom /Itu Federal Constituency, positioned themselves at the state party headquarters in Uyo, to hijack the materials, a situation that was saved by the prompt arrival of

A'IBOM

From Okon Bassey

in Uyo

Akpan. Edet and Akpan are from Ibiono Ibom, with the Speaker calling himself the political leader of the area, while the Commissioner is seen as an apostle of due process within and outside his constituency. At the party headquaters on Monday, sources said it was a shouting match and drama, as the Speaker after securing the materials for Ibiono Ibom, headed for his vehicle, but was confronted by Akpan.

Saraki's Wife Urges Women to

Wife of Kwara State governor and Initiator of Wellbeing Foundation, Mrs Oluwatoyin Saraki, yesterday urged Nigerian women to use their potentials to accelerate the socio well being of the society.

She said the era of individualism have gone and it now behoves on the women to come together, harness their potentials and allow the society have access to it, in order to move the nation forward.

KWARA

From Hammed Shittu

in Ilorin

Saraki said this in Ilorin, while performing official inauguration of Kwara State Officials Wives Association (KWASOWA), held at the Women Development Centre, Fate, Ilorin.

She said, "we have all different levels of accomplishments among women in the state, as some of us could stand as high as any other