

Robbers Kill Inspector

Mr. Tanko Lawal, the Deputy Commissioner of Police in Kano State, yesterday told newsmen in Kano that suspected armed robbers allegedly shot dead a police Inspector, Bello Hudu. Lawal said the incident took place on Thursday evening in Kano during a gun battle with armed robbers at Country Mall, a shopping mall in Kano. According to the deputy commissioner, the armed robbers carried out three separate operations on Thursday in the ancient city. He said the suspected robbers attacked one Alhaji Ibrahim of A.G Motors in his house at Badawa Layout in Kano. He said the robbers shot at him before taking away his Honda model car, which contained a bag and headed for the mall which was located at a Farm centre in Kano. "With the mall being in an obscure area, thus posing a threat to the customer that visit the mall, we created a check point and that was exactly where the whole incident took place," he said.
