

Murder: Police Arrest 4 Youths

Bayelsa State Police Command has arrested four youths over the murder of a site worker at a filling station along Isaac Boro Expressway in Yenagoa. Spokesman of the Command, Mr Ibokette Iniobong, said in Yenagoa, that the incident occurred on September 11. According to him, the Police received a report from Chief Gospel Kpokpwei, a businessman and owner of the filling station that some youths, led by one Elekume Daniel, had attacked his workers at the site. Iniobong said Kpokpwei told the Police that his site manager, Mr. Azuka Diokpala, had called to inform him that some youths attacked workers at the site with machetes and clubs.
