

Man Beheaded By Suspected Ritualist

A middle-aged man, Chukwudi Ossai, was yesterday beheaded by a suspected ritualist at Oloho-Ohwashi, in Aniocha South Local Government Area of Delta State. Ossai, who was alleged to have been beheaded by the suspected ritualist, (name withheld) met his untimely death while working in his father's farm along with his elder sister when the incident occurred. THISDAY gathered that Ossai was allegedly attacked while working in the farm, unknown to him that the assassin, was lurking behind. The suspect, it was further gathered, had succeeded in snuffing life out of his victim, when Ossai's elder sister heard the groaning of his brother as he was struggling with the assassin upon which she raised alarm prompting the assassin to take to his heels. He was, however, caught trying to escape. THISDAY gathered that the suspect was caught while hiding in a church (name withheld) around the village with blood stains all over his body and when questioned on what prompted his action, he said the pastor of the church asked him to get a fresh human head for him for a fee.
