He said two units of mobile policemen have been stationed in the area to prevent the reoccurrence of the crisis.

According to him, the council is spending what he called a substantial amount of money in maintaining the policemen to ensure there is security of lives and properties in the area.

He appealed to the people of the area to shun violence to allow government address the problems of infrastructures in the area. Agbazo also took reporters round the projects he has executed since the inception of the present local government administration in the state.

Some of the projects include ultra modern shopping hall and Motor Park, purchasing of step down transformers, construction of culvert and building of veterinary clinic and cattle market.
