Gunmen Kidnap Briton, Kill Two Policemen

From Ahamefula Ogbu in Port Harcourt, 04.07.2009

A 60 year-old Briton, Allan Preston, working with Adamac, an indigenous oil servicing firm, was last night kidnapped by unknown gunmen in Port Harcourt, Rivers State.

The Briton was taken from Edosa Hotel located on the same East-West Road with the headquarters of the company while the two mobile policemen attached to him were killed by the gunmen.

So far, no group has claimed responsibility for the kidnap while security agencies had fanned out to ensure they arrest and bring to book the perpetrators of the criminal act.

Kidnappers had April last year kidnapped the father of the Chief Executive of Adamac from his Opobo country home and held him for a long time after their demand of N500 million ransom was not immediately met.

He was however released in unclear circumstances and flown abroad apparently for medical reasons.

Spokesman of the Joint Task Force (JTF), Major Ilyasu Aminu, said he was on an outside engagement and could not immediately confirm or deny the story a police source said was true.
