

Road Accident Claims Army General

The Nigerian Army said it had lost one of its reputable Mechanical Engineers, Brigadier General Garba Mohammed, who until his death was the Commander, Nigerian army Electrical and Mechanical Engineers (NAEME) to a motor accident. The ghastly motor accident which occurred at Gunduma village along Jos- Keffi highway, on Tuesday also claimed the lives of his wife and daughter as well as Ssgt John Achayi, who was the driver. In a statement by Director, Army Information, Brig. Gen. Chris Olukolade, the General had been buried in Lere town in Saminaka Local Government Area, Kaduna State according to islamic rites in the early hours of yesterday.