

DPP Chief Killed in Kebbi

A chieftain of the Democratic People's Party (DPP) in Kebbi state, Alhaji Shekare Dan Adam, has been reportedly shot dead by three unknown persons. The deceased, 49, a businessman was also robbed of the sum of N650,000. Eyewitness account told THISDAY that Dan Adam was attacked at his Tudun Wadan residence in Birnin Kebbi metropolis at about 12.05 while returning from his shop along Amadu Bello way. According to sources, the gunmen demanded for more money from the late politician before he was eventually shot at his chest and his left leg. When contacted, the state Police Commissioner, Alhaji Mutar Ibrahim, confirmed the incident but alleged that the family did not report to the police on time. He said the rattle the gunmen abandoned was now with the police. Ibrahim explained that the police had commenced investigation on the incident and promised that the culprits will be brought to book.