One Feared Dead, 2 Injured in Renewed Crisis

From Christopher Isiguzo in Enugu, 09.24.2009

At least one person has been confirmed dead while two others sustained varying degrees of injuries following a renewed communal crisis that broke out in Umuonyike, Amachalla Ngwo community in Udi local government area of Enugu state.

The deceased, a middle-aged man, Mr. Joseph Ngwunwani, from Umuonyike was shot dead in the ensuing fracas, while the other two persons who sustained gunshot injuries were said to be on admission in an hospital.

The two other victims from Umuonyike whom the police said sustained serious gunshot wounds in the bloody attack that occurred on Tuesday were identified as Valentine Agu and Obinna Ugwu. Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Mr. Ebere Amaraizu, who confirmed the incident to newsmen yesterday, said the assailants allegedly led by one Ebuka Ani alias Anigbawa from Umukanu village, Amachalla Ngwo fled shortly after the attack. He said the police command had been alerted of the problem in the area following which a team of policemen were deployed to maintain law and order in the feuding community.

According to Amaraizu, while the policemen were still pacifying the people of Umuonyike from confronting Ebuka Ani and his team who had allegedly barricaded the road leading to Umuonyike, the assailants fired some gunshots from the nearby bush injuring the three victims.

THISDAY checks revealed that the victims were immediately rushed to Unity Hospital, Ngwo by the police, but doctors at the hospital, realising the precarious condition of Ngwunwani, referred him to the National Ortho-paedic Hospital, Enugu and admitted Valentine and Obinna for treatment.
