Cultists Kill Four Students in Osun Poly

No fewer than four students of the Osun State Polytechnic, Iree were yesterday night shot dead at the premises of the institution by cultists during a bloody clash that ensued between two rival cult groups in the institution. THISDAY at about 9pm yesterday was told that the four students were shot dead at the Students Union Building located along Motion Ground where students converge to snap pictures. Two of the victims were said to have just finished their National Diploma (ND) programme and were on campus to collect their results. The students were said to have been pursued by their assailants numbering four to where they were eventually shot dead. An eye witness account stressed that students who belong to a rival cult group on campus have been having a running battle with their assailants since last academic session.
