

Driver Kills 'Madam' in Kwara

Tragedy struck, weekend, in Jebba town in Moro local government council area of Kwara state when a 36-years old trader, Mrs. Abigail Osakwe, was allegedly murdered in cold blood by her driver over an undisclosed some of money.

Addressing newsmen in Ilorin yesterday over the dastardly act, the elder brother to the deceased, Mr. Alex Osakwe, said his sister

From Hammed Shittu

in Ilorin

was allegedly killed by her driver by name Sule Salau a.k.a 'Elegusi'.

He said her late sister who is a graduate of Business Administration, Federal Polytechnic Offa, Kwara state and the driver were to travel to Ilorin to buy building materials the following day when the driver allegedly visited her room at about 3am and allegedly killed her in an attempt to get the money. Osakwe stated that the driver and his late sister counted the money together a day before the incident, stressing that it was the son of his late sister, David, who is five years old that identified the suspect.