

BRIEFLY

Robbery Attack Claims 3

Six persons lost their lives when a gang of robbers, numbering about 20 attacked one old and new generation banks in Ankpan, East Senatorial District of Kogi State. Victims of the robbery attack which took place at about 2:30p.m. were said to have met their death when they were hit in the sporadic gunshots by the robbers to ward off passersby and also to gain entrance into the banks. The robbers reportedly attacked the old generation bank within the township where they carted away an undisclosed amount of money before heading for the new generation bank. The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Mr. Ajayi Okasanmi, confirmed the incident but was unable to give further details as at press time

Codification of Laws