

THISDAY, THE SATURDAY NEWSPAPER • AUGUST 17, 2013

In Brief

Jonathan Mourns Jigawa Deputy Speaker

President Goodluck Jonathan Friday commiserated with the family of the Deputy Speaker of the Jigawa State House of Assembly, Hon. Inuwa Sule Udi, the Speaker, members of the Assembly and the government and people of Jigawa State over the death of the Deputy Speaker in a ghastly car accident on Thursday. The President, according to a statement by his Special Adviser on Media and Public Affairs, Dr Reuben Abati, while expressing utter shock at the death which he described as "very painful and untimely," said Jigawa State and the nation would miss the legislative experience of Honourable Udi, a third-term member of the State House of Assembly. He prayed that God Almighty would console members of the Udi family and grant the soul of the departed lawmaker peaceful rest.

'Relocate From River Basin Areas'

Following the heavy downpour that affected several houses in the state, Governor Isa Yuguda of Bauchi State has warned residents of the state living along river basin areas to relocate to avoid further loss of lives and properties. Yuguda who stated this yesterday during a press conference at the

