

an Parliament who welcomed brand, South Africa...recently

thing of Salt
Says Ata Igala

certificate short-courses in creative and vocational disciplines in African, which incidentally is provided in conjunction with Ravensbourne

Edo Police Kill Robbery, Kidnap Suspects

The Police in Benin City at the early hours of yesterday shot dead two suspected armed robbers/ kidnappers during an exchange of fire with the hoodlums. According to a statement issued by the Command's Public Relations Officer, Noble Uwoh, the shoot-out occurred at about 5.44 am when the hoodlums emerged from their hideouts to unleash terror on commuters along Benin-Lagos road. "In the exchange of fire, two of the criminals were fatally injured and their articles of trade such as two AK47 riffles, 124 rounds of live ammunition of AK47, marine rope, face cap, face mask and SIM cards and four mobile phones were recovered from them", he said. Uwoh added that the injured suspects died while being rushed to the hospital for treatment, adding that the cordoning and searching of the bush paths leading to the suspects' hideouts and the immediate environs to arrest other fleeing suspects was in progress.

Secondus Disclaims Governorship Ambition

The National Deputy Chairman of the Peoples Democratic Party PDP Prince