

to use only two of the four-lane occupants to our own bus."

STF Soldier Allegedly Kills Man in Plateau over Girlfriend

Seriki Adinoyi in Jos

A soldier attached to the Special Task Force (STF) on Jos crisis has allegedly shot and killed a man for insulting his girlfriend at Jarmai village of Kanam Local Government Area, Plateau State.

The deceased whose name was given as Buhari Alhaji Kawu was said to have been shot dead by the soldier who intercepted him and his brother Ibrahim Alhaji Kawu, and also dispossessed them of the sum of N80,000.

Abdullahi Abubakar, a relation of the deceased, told journalist in Jos yesterday that the soldier was reported to have been trailing Buhari, who had allegedly insulted his girlfriend, when he eventually met him with his brother, killed him, and dispossess them of the money.

He said the matter had been reported to the STF Guard Commander in the Dangi town of the local government area.

Efforts to reach the STF spokesman, Captain Ikedichi Iweha, to confirm the matter and clarify the force's position yielded no results as calls to him were not responded to as at the time of filling in this report.

governor has been drawn the screaming news headline purporting that he has declared Suntai missing.

"Umar hereby places

Borno Appeals to Release Can

The Borno State Government has appealed to West African Examinations Council (WAEC) and National Examinations Council (NECO) to release results of its candidates who for the 2014 examinations.

Alhaji Mohammed Ka the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Education, made the appeal in Maiduguri while briefing journalists yesterday.

According to the News agency of Nigeria (NAN), Kauji said the state had cleared all