

The federal government has again renewed its commitment to the people of Nigeria. Knowing that this aspiration to become the next Akiya governor had already received divine blessing.

Bauchi Police Kill, Arrest Robbers

Bauchi state Police command have smashed a suspected notorious robbery gang, killing one, arrested another and recovered dangerous weapons Thursday night at Jada village of Futuk district in Alkaleri LGA of Bauchi state. A statement signed by the Bauchi State police Command Spokesman, DSP Haruna Mohammed and made available to newsmen in Bauchi Friday, disclosed that the incident occurred Thursday around 10:00pm when Police detectives attached to Alkaleri Division in collaboration with Danga Vigilante groups smashed a three-man robbery syndicate in Military uniforms after a fierce encounter at Jada village of Futuk district in Alkaleri LGA. Haruna Mohammed identified the two suspects as Ladi Duda male, 35 years of Jada village in Alkaleri was arrested, while Adam Ibrahim alias Luluwa who sustained gunshot injuries during the encounter was certified dead at the hospital. The Spokesman said the police recovered weapons that included, One Fabricated revolver pistol, one locally made pistol; three live cartridges and one .9mm.

Tivs in Taraba Drag INEC to Court