

18 Killed in Ogun Auto Crash

An eighteen-seater commercial bus yesterday plunged into a river along Idiroko Road, about a kilometre from Covenant University, Otta, Ogun State, killing 16 of its passengers and leaving two survivors. The white painted bus, according to witnesses, was said to be conveying passengers from Sango area to Owode-Idiroko in Ogun State before the incident. One of the survivors was a woman and her little daughter who were rescued by divers. Another victim simply identified as Taofeek was also seen at the scene of the accident with bruises on his face. The Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) confirmed that 16 people died in the accident.
