

Again, Rivers Boils as Four Die

There were disturbing reports of violence from Rivers State. no fewer than four people were said to have died at the time of filing this report.

The APC has alleged that one of its chieftains and former Chairman of Andoni Local Government Area of the state, Chief Mowan Etete, was killed alongside his elder brother and also his cousin in Asarama.

In a statement issued by its Publicity Secretary, Chris Finebone, the party also said one of its ex-officio members of the State Executive Committee, Ignatius, was shot dead at Ajakaja, also in Andoni by suspected political thugs.

But the police have yet to confirm any of the deaths.

However, heavy gunfire was reported in Abonema, headquarters of Akuku Toru Local Government Area of the state. THISDAY gathered that many voters were scared away from the polling stations.

Consequently, INEC suspended voting in Bonny and Akuku Toru council areas pending the return of normalcy to the area.

Lagos Wallows in