

The attack took place despite the 24 -hour curfew imposed on Zangon Kataf and Kauru LGAs over a month ago by the state government, following tension over the killing of a farmer.

Twenty two people had earlier been killed on July 12, 2020, in similar attacks on Kigudu and Chibob villages, also in Zangon Kataf LGA.