

Meanwhile, a police officer attached to the Aramoko Division Police Division of the state has been crushed to death by a motorist between Efon and Aramoko Ekiti.

It was gathered that the police officer was on his way to office when the incident happened at dusk of last Saturday.

The driver of the vehicle, who also sustained critical injury, is said to be receiving treatment in an undisclosed hospital.

Sympathisers confirmed that the officer worked in Aramoko but resided in Efon Alaaye with his family.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, , Mr. Sunday Abutu, confirmed the incident, attributing the death to a suspected case of murder.