

Gunmen Kill Cleric as Vehicle Crushes Policeman to Death in Ekiti

October 5, 2020 3:48 am

Victor Ogunje in Ado Ekiti

Suspected gunmen have reportedly killed a cleric, Mr. Kayode Ogunleye, in Aramoko Ekiti, headquarters of Ekiti West Local Government Area of Ekiti State and dumped his body in a forest on Ijero-Ekiti highway.

This came barely a month a Director at the Ekiti State LG Service Commission, Mr. David Jejelowo, was killed in his home on Igirigiri road in Ado Ekiti, the state capital, by gunmen.

It was gathered that the lifeless body of the Pastor, who was also a staff of the Ekiti West LGA, was found in his farm near the forest.

Sources revealed that Ogunleye, who worked for All Christian Fellowship Church, was murdered while working on his farm.

The sources revealed to journalists yesterday that the man went to his farm to harvest banana to be sold when he saw the suspected gunmen.