

Ibadan

In Oyo State, two police officers were allegedly burnt to death at Iwo road area of Ibadan, the state capital.

Hoodlums also set ablaze a police vehicle attached to the Gbagi police station and some other vans.

The hoodlums, who moved round the city, also set on fire a police station located at Alabebe area, Iyana Church while attempts were made on other stations in Akobo, Testing Ground and Agugu.

Efforts made to get reaction from the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Mr. Olugbenga Fadeyi, proved abortive as he did not take his calls or reply messages sent to him.

However, as the time of filling this report, normalcy had been restored to most of the areas by men of the state security outfit, 'Operation Burst.'

Governor Seyi Makinde, yesterday visited hot spots of the protests in Ibadan, declaring that his government would continue to do what is necessary to secure the lives and property of the residents of the state.