

Nine Bandits Killed in Rival Fight Over Sharing of Ransom in Kaduna

John Shiklam in Kaduna

Nine bandits have been killed in Giwa Local Government Area of Kaduna State following a fight over sharing of ransom paid by their victims.

The two rival groups were said to have disagreed over the sharing of an accumulated sum of money they made from kidnapping people.

Kaduna State Commissioner

for Information, Mr. Samuel Aruwan who confirmed the incident in a statement yesterday said, "Nemesis caught up with two groups of armed bandits in Giwa local government who in a fratricidal gun duel killed nine of their fellows."

He said, "credible human intelligence networks informed the Kaduna State Government of the development, which was further corroborated by security
