

Three Policemen, Woman Killed in Renewed Communal Clash in Taraba

Wole Ayodele in Jalingo

Four persons, including three mobile policemen have been killed in a renewed communal clash between the Ichen and Ndaka tribes in Bissaula, Kurmi Local Government Area of Taraba State.

Also killed along with the policemen, who were attached to 67 Squadron, Takum, is an elderly woman who is simply identified as Isobye.

THISDAY gathered that the policemen, who were drafted to the community to maintain peace following an outbreak of violent clashes between the two tribes, were killed last Wednesday by ethnic militia, who ambushed them when they went to make telephone call in a primary school.

After being killed, their bodies were dumped in a disused well and their service rifles stolen by the militia who later escaped to Cameroon.

Their corpses were later recovered last Friday in the disused well by a search and rescue party that was constituted to search for them.
