On receipt of the information, he said, the command deployed its tactical teams to the area and engaged the terrorists in a fierce gun duel, where they successfully repelled the attacks.

Isah, in the statement, said: "The team successfully repelled the terrorists and recovered 74 sheep, 34 goats and two cows. Many terrorists were feared killed and/or fatally wounded during the encounter."

The superintendent of police added that a team of policemen was still combing the area with a view to arresting the wounded terrorists or recovering the dead.

He admonished members of the public to continue to cooperate with security agencies in the ongoing war against terrorists in the state.
