

Police Neutralise Suspected Kidnapper, Rescue Two Victims in Adamawa

Police in Adamawa, in rustling and unlawful possession collaboration with hunters, of firearms.

neutralised a suspected kidnapper and rescued two victims in Toungo Local Government Area of the state on Sunday.

Police spokesman, SP Suleiman Nguroje, stated in Yola yesterday that it was one of the successes of the police's collaborative strategies to end kidnapping, robbery, cattle

"One kidnapper was neutralised when he and his gang arrived at a spot to receive N2 million ransom demanded from relatives of the kidnapped victims.

"The suspected kidnappers sighted our men around the area and engaged them in a gun duel so as to escape arrest.

"One of them was neutralised while others escaped with bullet wounds," he stated.

Nguroje added that the two victims, Suleiman Abdullahi (23), and Ruwa Buba (11), residents of Mayo Sumsum Village in Toungo Local Government Area, were rescued unhurt.

He stated also that Commissioner of Police in Adamawa, Mr Afolabi Babatola, commended operatives of Toungo

Divisional Police Office and the hunters for their gallantry.

Babatola directed the joint operations team to track down fleeing members of the kidnap gang to ensure that they did not re-group anywhere in the state.

The police commissioner charged residents to always inform the police of the whereabouts of criminals, especially those found with bullet wounds," Nguroje stated.

Election Monitors Petition Buhari, Accuses Police Minister of Poll Manipulation in Sokoto

The Network for Domestic Election Monitors (NDEM), Sokoto State chapter has petitioned opposition agents.

It cited the absence of police personnel at polling units during

Sani Abubakar Yar Sakke, and addressed to President Buhari, the group alleged that Dindandi

the Chief Justice of Nigeria, INEC chairman, National Security Adviser, Inspector General of

Indian Prime Minister Modi Advocate