Osun NSCDC Nabs Fake Doctor for Pregnant Woman's Death

NIGERIA | 3 days ago

He allegedly attended to pregnant woman during childbirth which led to her death.

The suspect whose highest qualification is Secondary School Certificate Examination (SSCE) has been operating an unlicensed clinic for the past six years and two months. He also has people who are undergoing training in his clinic as staff.

While making his confessional statement, the suspect, Toyin said on the 15th of April, 2024, a pregnant woman with nine months and three weeks pregnancy visited his hospital popularly known as Oloruntoyin Clinic at No 2, Lakewu area, Ororuwo, Boripe Local Government, Osun State.

According to him, the pregnant woman could not continue her antenatal care at her previous hospital because she had misunderstanding with her husband.

The self-acclaimed doctor said he checked her blood pressure which was low and gave her some drugs. He thereafter, asked her to come back whenever she fell into labour.

On Thursday, 18th April 2024, the woman began to experience labour symptoms and was in the hospital where she was delivered of a baby. The victim developed some complications shortly after and was later rushed to a nearby licensed hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Further discreet investigation revealed that the suspect also engaged in the training of people to become quack doctor like him with the sum of N5,000 only.

The Commandant, NSCDC Osun State command, Adaralewa, said Section. 343(1e) of the Criminal Code Act which provides that any person who in a manner so rash or negligent as to endanger human life or likely cause harm to any other person gives medical or surgical treatment to any person whom he has undertaken to treat is guilty of a misdemeanor and is liable.

Commandant Adaralewa, therefore, assured members of the public that the suspect would be made to face the full wrath of the law upon the conclusion of investigation. While calling on members of the public to be mindful of medical institution they visit when seeking medical attention, he calls on the public to report quacks to security agencies for prompt action.
