

Family of Slain Economist Seeks Justice, Petitions IG

Wole Ayodele in Jalingo

The family of Mohammed Abubakar, who was alleged to have been gruesomely murdered by local hunters in Ardo Kola Local Government Area of Taraba State has appealed to the Inspector General of Police (IG) to ensure the killers of their breadwinner are brought to book.

Mohammed Abubakar, an economist, who graduated from Gombe State University, was killed alongside three others by hunters on the allegation that they were kidnappers.

In a petition written by Hamza Dantani and addressed to the Deputy Inspector General (DIG), Force Criminal Investigation Department, on behalf of the complainants, the family urged the DIG to use his good offices to wade into and investigate acts of kidnapping, abduction, killings, theft and conspiracy as well as criminal intimidation perpetrated by the suspects in the case.

The suspects in the case are Salisu Abdullahi Nomo, who is the head of the local hunters in Ardo Kola, and Alhaji Ismail Zakari Dangote.
