Council donates two vehicles to police

• Monday, Oct 20, 2008

Faskari Local Government of Katsina State has donated two cars to the police for enhanced security in the area.

The council's Information Officer, Malam Rabi'u Faskari told our correspondent today in Faskari that the gesture was to assist the police in its operations.

Faskari noted that the council's Chairman, Alhaji Nafi'u Garba appreciated the efforts of the police in combating crime in the area.

Our report recalls that a gang of suspected armed robbers had killed two members of a vigilance group at Sabon-Layin Galadima ward in Faskari Local Government Area on October 10.

Our correspondent gathered that the vigilance group, in conjunction with the Police, conducts joint patrols daily to curb crime in the domain.

However, on the fateful day,
