TUC chairman killed in Makurdi

Mr Anthony Udu, chairman, Trade Union Congress (TUC), Benue state Branch, was shot and killed on Friday by unknown persons at Gyado Villa, Gboko road, Makurdi.

A statement issued on Saturday in Makurdi by the family of the deceased and signed by his junior brother Mr Terkaa Udu, said the late unionist was shot and killed between 8.30 p.m and 9 p.m. on Friday.

He said that he was attacked after visiting a Bishop at the Parish of St. Veronica's Catholic Church, Agidi, Gboko.

He said the late Udu was rushed to the Federal Medical Centre, Makurdi, where he was pronounced dead.

Terka said that before his death, the deceased was Director, Administration and Finance, Benue State Examination Board, Makurdi.

According to the statement, the deceased was born on June 26, 1960, in Gboko Local Government Area and held various positions in the labour union including, Chairman, Association of Senior Civil Servant.

He is survived by an aged mother, wife, five children, three brothers including, the Very Reverend Father Emmanuel Udu, Dean, Gboko Catholic Deanery.

The statement said burial arrangement for late Udu would be announced later.
