A 56- year- old man, John Oromoro, is now cooling his heels in police custody for allegedly killing his pastor last week Sunday at Jakande Estate, Ajangbadi area of Lagos state.

Mr. Oromoro was quoted to have informed the police that the deceased pastor of Jesus Power Ministry, Benjamin Ojinaka, aged 45, allegedly raped his 15- year- old daughter in July this year.

Saturday Tribune further gathered that a fight ensued between the suspect and the deceased, which resulted in the pastor's death, when the suspect went to confront the pastor on the allegation that it was his daughter that lured him into sex.

According to the suspect, "I be tanker driver. the thing wey happened na since more than one month ago. my daughter, wey be the last born of my fourteen children get marine spirit. pastor Ben come say him fit deliver her. na me and pastor na we form the church together, so na so pastor come dey carry her go for deliverance. the spirit wen dey disturb her come go. so na so pastor say make she continue dey come church say she get anointing for study."

He also claimed that his daughter later refused going to church after a while refusing to tell her father the reason.

Oromoro further explained that, "she come confess say pastor Ben rape her for inside my house one day during deliverance. i come vex and go meet pastor. him come tell me make i forgive am say na devil work. i vex but i come forgive pastor."

Oromoro stressed that he later heard that the pastor told people that his daughter lured him to have sex with him.

According him, " when i hear say pastor dey tell people say na my daughter rape am, i come go him house on Sunday go ask am say why him dey spoil my daughter name. him tell me to get out from him house. i come vex and we come dey fight. an so people for the compound come separate us. as pastor dey run go tell police, na so him fall down."

According to Mrs Ojinaka, the wife of the deceased, Pastor Ojinaka slumped after the fight and he was rushed to a private hospital.

"As him fall down, we pour water for him body but him no wake up. we carry am go private hospital and them refer us to general hospital for Badagry. when the doctor see am for general hospital, them say pastor don die may we carry am go mortuary."
