Two mobile police corporals attached to the Zamfara State governor, Alhaji Mahmud Aliyu Shinkafi's convoy were feared dead in a fatal auto accident on Saturday, on their way to Maradun, in continuation of the governor's campaign tour to local government areas.

An eyewitness told the Nigerian Tribune that the accident occurred on the Gusau-Talata Mafara road at about 5:00 p.m. when the back tyre of the vehicle they were travelling in burst.

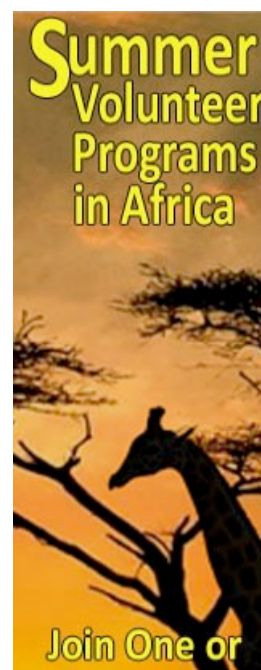

The eyewitness further told the Nigerian Tribune that the vehicle which was conveying the policemen somer-saulted resulting in the death of the duo on the spot, while four other policemen in the car also sustained serious injuries.

The Nigerian Tribune also learnt that the policemen were on their way to Maradun as an advance party of the governor's convoy to ensure proper security.

When contacted, the Zamfara State Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Sanusi Amiru, confirmed the death of the two police corporals, adding that the corpses of the deceased had been deposited at the Federal Medical Centre, Gusau.

The command's spokesman gave the names of the deceased as Corporals Lois Ezekiel and Shehu Ahmad.

ASP Sanusi also said the other policemen who sustained injuries were treated and discharged from the hospital.
