

Motorcyclist stabs customs officer to death

MAIDUGURI—A commercial motor cycle rider popularly known as “Achaba Rider” in Maiduguri, weekend stabbed one Umar, an Assistant Superintendent of custom to death.

Mr Beckly Femi, the Public Relations Officer of the Borno/Yobe Customs Command, Assistant superintendent of customs II, confirmed the death of the officer.

Femi said that Umar was on out-station posting to Gambaru Ngala, a border town between Nigeria and Cameroun, adding that he met his death while trying to stop the Achaba rider from illegally crossing the border.

He pointed out that the corpse of the officer has been taken by customs officials from Maiduguri to Auchu his home town for burial.