

2 shot dead in Edo

TWO persons were shot dead, while a councillor was abducted in Owan East Local Government council of Edo state when armed men suspected to be political thugs engaged themselves in a shoot out.

Saturday Vanguard gathered that the battle started when some political thugs stormed Afuze, Owan East Local Government Council and abducted the councillor, a member of the Action Congress. It was said that when it was discovered that the councilor was missing, his loyalist went in search of him and they engaged their opponents in a shoot out which resulted to the death of two persons.
