

Policeman dismissed for killing colleague

ADO-EKITI—A POLICE constable, Adedoja Isaiah has been dismissed for allegedly killing a fellow constable in Omuo-Ekiti while another police officer faced similiar penalty for allegedly stealing a generating set in Ikere-Ekiti on Monday.

The state police boss, Mr Ibe Aghnaya disclosed this in Ado Ekiti yesterday during a meeting with members of the Road Transport Employers Association of Nigeria, saying the two officers have subsequently been charged to court.

The Police Commissioner also warned motorists especially the commercial vehicle drivers not to give N20 to any police officer on the high way.
