Four killed as Iyasere of Oghara escapes death in auto crash

By Emma Amaize

WARRI — FOUR persons died in a multiple motor accident along the Asaba expressway at Uromi junction in Delta State on Thursday.

The Iyasere of Oghara Kingdom, High Chief Champion Oboh narrowly escaped death. The Iyasere, who was on his way to Asaba was involved in the accident and narrowly escaped death.

A number of persons in a Delta Line bus that was also involved in the accident sustained various degrees of injuries.

According to the Iyasere, "On my way to Asaba, my driver slowed down because the convoy of His Royal Highness, the Dein of Agbor Kingdom was turning to the side of Benin, when suddenly a tipper lorry rammed into my car. Only God who knows the heart of men saved me, my older son, Mr. Aijarho Oboh, my personal assistant and secretary".

Five vehicles were involved in the accident with each one hitting the other from behind. The four victims died on their way to the hospital.
