PORT HARCOURT—
GUNMEN reportedly killed two persons yesterday around Stadium road in Port Harcourt. Sources who spoke to Vanguard on the sad incident said the men had gone to the bank.

Unknown to them, some assailants on a motorbike were on their trail. On their way back from the bank they were reportedly shot dead. It could not be confirmed if the assailants fled with any of their valuables.

When contacted on phone, the state Police PRO, Mrs. Baresua Ireju, said she had not received any signal on the development, so could not confirm it.

Incidents of this nature have become recurring decimal around bank premises in the state capital. Security sources told Vanguard that some robbers pose as Okada riders close to banks. And as soon as their victims come out they trail them to quiet spots where they forcefully disposes them of their cash.
