

Ritual killing:LG imposes curfew

MAKURDI — OJU Local Government Area of Benue has imposed a dusk-to-dawn curfew in all the 11 wards to stem the activities of ritual killers.

The Council's Principal Information Officer, Mr Egbodo Agana, said in a statement that the decision was taken at the council's emergency security meeting.

Some suspected ritual killers on Aug. 15 at Owu ward severed the head of a teenage girl and left three other girls with several machete cuts.
