LAGOS—THE entire Oluwale street in the densely populated Oshodi area of Lagos, on Sunday, was thrown into confusion, following the death of a man, Muyiwa Otuyemi, who had gone to visit his female friend.

The deceased was reported to have slumped in his girlfriend's room after making love.

The shouts of help from the girl's room attracted residents, at about 9.58 am.

The inquisitive neighbors thereafter discovered the said man was dead.

It was gathered that the late Muiywa who was a resident of #3 Opere street, Shomolu, had been going out with his girlfriend before the tragic incident.

Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer, Mr Olubode Ojajuni, who confirmed the incident yesterday at his Oduduwa office in Ikeja, said the corpse has been moved to the public mortuary while the case is still being investigated.

Meanwhile, tragedy also struck same day at Tarkwa bay Beach when a lady who had gone to swim in company of her friends drowned in the beach. Reports said the victim went to the beach to have fun with three other female friends around 3p.m. on Sunday but got drown while swimming.

The unfortunate incident disrupted commercial activities at the popular beach for over three hours as other fun seekers left the beach for fear after seeing the lifeless body of the victim been brought out of the waters by some local divers at the beach.
