Aba—The Abia State Police Command Monday killed two armed robbery suspects in Aba as they were operating by a first generation bank on Factory Road in Aba.

According to the police commissioner, Mr. Emmanuel Ezeozue who briefed the press in his office, "The Aba Area Command had an information that men suspected to be robbers were behaving in unusual way along Factory road by Uba and Mr. Biggs.

"Policemen at the banks opened fire on the suspects and a very serious exchange of fire took place. Two of them were killed. They were operating with a bus, a jeep and motorcycles," the Commissioner said.

Ezeozue said that no arrests have so far been made in connection to the incident. He however, disclosed that three people, two men and a woman have been arrested with blood stain, but said that they could not be, for now, linked to the incident until the police conclude investigations.
