Gunmen on rampage in Delta, kill 3 cops

Written by Emma Amaize
Monday, 10 March 2008

SUSPECTED gunmen, last Sunday, opened fire at policemen who were on duty on the Otu Jeremi Divisional Police Headquarters in Ughelli South Local Government Area of Delta State, killing a police constable, identified as John and injuring several others.

An Inspector of Police attached to the "B" Division, Agbarah-Otor in Ughelli North Local Government Area and a sergeant, attached to the immediate past president of the Urhobo Progress Union (UPU), Chief Benjamin Okumagba, were also shot dead in a comparable condition by the rampaging bandits.

The reason for the attack was not obvious but in the past one week, it appears as if bandits were on a vengeance mission against the police with the manner they were launching offensives against the cops in Warri and Ughelli.

After shooting Constable John at about 10:00 p.m. right in front of the Out-Jeremi Police Station, the daring gunmen sped off in their car.

While Constble John who hailed from Agbor died on the spot, his colleague, Corporal Samuel who survived the surprise attack is said to be receiving medical attention at the Ughelli Central Hospital where he was rushed after the gunmen escaped with one of the two cars they were moving in through Oghior route of the Okwagbe Road.

Divisional Police Officer (DPO) for Jeremi, Sunday Babaji, a Chief Superintendent of Police, could not be reached, yesterday, for comments but it was learnt that policemen were on the trail of the gunmen.

Meanwhile, about the same time the corporal who survived the Jeremi shooting was taken for medical attention, the authorities, an Inspector of Police, attached to the "B" Division, Agbarha-Otor who was attacked in a similar circumstance gave up the ghost at the the Ughelli Central Hospital, Ughelli.

Only penultimate Tuesday, immediate past President General of Urhobo Progress Union and Otota of Okere Urhobo Kingdom, Chief Benjamin Okumagba, lost a police aide, identified as Sergeant Adamu to suspected robbers who fired repeatedly at him within the precincts of the palace of the Orosuen of Okere-Urhobo, where he was on routine escort with Okumagba to the phased burial rites of the demised Orosuen.

The killing of Sgt. Adamu, a mobile police officer marks the second time under two years that Chief Okumagba would lose a police aide to gunmen, as one officer attached to him was equally killed in the
