

Councillorship aspirant dies of stab wounds

MUBI — MALAM Buba Mahmuda, a 28-year-old PDP councillorship aspirant in Mubi North local government of Adamawa, has died as a result of stab wounds.

The aspirant was allegedly stabbed with a knife by the gateman at the residence of a member of House of Representatives' Njidda Gella, (PDP-Adamawa).

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) learnt that the incident, which occurred at the Mubi GRA residence of the lawmaker, followed a fight between the deceased and the gateman.

The gateman had prevented the deceased from gaining entry into the residence of Njidda.

An aide to Njidda, Alhaji Mohammadu Muvur, said the deceased was a regular visitor to the house whenever the law maker was in town.

"In the fight that ensued, the deceased was stabbed on the neck by the officious gate man.

"I rushed the deceased to the Mubi General Hospital in my car but he gave up before he could be attended to", Mohammadu said.

The Divisional Police Officer in charge of Mubi North, Mr Jacob Gadzama, confirmed the incident.

He also confirmed that the lawmaker's gate man had been arrested.
