Police kill 4 robbers on Iwo-Ogbomoso road

O SUN State Police Command yesterday killed four dare-devil highway armed robbers who have been operating on the Iwo-Ogbomoso road, dispossessing commuters of their valuable properties.

The robbers met their Waterloo following a distress call to the police in Osogbo that some robbers were operating on the highway subjecting their victims to physical and mental tortures.

Briefing newsmen in Osogbo on the incident, the Osun State Police Command spokesperson, Mr. Joshua Olayemi, said the robbers waylaid an 18-seat passenger bus about 11.00 at Bode-Osi and dispossessed the occupants of their properties.
