

Benue Police shoot three suspected robbers dead

By Peter Duru

MAKURDI—MEN of the Benue State Police command Monday shot dead 3 suspected armed robbers who attempted to flee from lawful custody.

Briefing newsmen, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Mr. Samuel Jinadu stressed that the 3 suspected robbers, Tergu Aka, Bem Gbado and Bemgba Doolum were sometime early in the year involved in a robbery incident in Gboko town and after being apprehended they confessed to the crime.

He stated further that during interrogation the suspects promised to take the police to the hideout of other criminals in a village in Gboko from where they had been launching series of robbery attacks on the residents of the town.
