

Again, shooting in P-Harcourt as cultists strike

• One dead, 3 injured

JIMITOTA ONOYUME
Port Harcourt

THE peace in Port Harcourt was shattered yesterday afternoon when suspected cultists took to the street around Njemanze area shooting indiscriminately. The shooting which lasted about twenty minutes claimed the life of a passerby and injured three others. Confirming the development on phone to Sunday Vanguard, the state police PRO, Mrs. Rita Inoma Abbey, said they came through the water ways and also disappeared through the same route.

She feared that they had no particular target but merely came out shooting indiscriminately to cause panic and tension. She explained that at press time effort was still on to track them.

"It is true that there was shooting which claimed one life and got three persons injured. According to my briefing, they did not come after anybody in particular, which means they were not targetting individuals, they just appeared from the creek and started attacking people they found in sight, Abbey stated".